

The consolidation of DSL/broadband service amongst Baby Bells and other local telco monopolies is unhealthy. Please help independent ISPs continue to offer their high level of service and compete against these corporations.